

The Management Committee of the North West Police Benevolent Fund have reluctantly decided to sell the lodges based in South Wales at Llanteglos Estates, Llanteg, Pembrokeshire.

The Fund currently owns 4 lodges which are Leasehold, and each lodge comprises of double bedroom, small bedroom with bunk beds and a dining area that converts into another sleeping area with a double bed settee, living area, ground floor bathroom and fitted kitchen. On the site there is a children's play area, Tennis Court, a pub which also sells food/meals and conference facilities.

The Management Committee have decided to offer the lodges to any of our members who may be interested in purchasing a holiday home at a drastically reduced price before putting them on to the open market.
